Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Fresh Cut Roses From Colombia

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 6, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: James Maeder or James Terpstra, Office of Antidumping Investigations, Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230; telephone (202) 482-3330, or (202) 482-3965.

Final Determination

We determine that fresh cut roses (roses) from Colombia are being, or are likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value, as provided in section 735 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (the Act), as amended as of 1994. The estimated margins are shown in the "Suspension of Liquidation" section of this notice.

Case History

Since the notice of amended preliminary determination on October 4, 1994 (59 FR 51554, October 12, 1994), the following events have occurred.

On September 27, 1994, respondents requested a postponement of the final determination. On September 28, 1994, the Department agreed to postpone the final determination until January 26, 1994.

On September 29 and 30, 1994, we received responses to the Department's supplemental questionnaires from Grupo Sabana (Sabana), Grupo Intercontinental (Intercontinental), the Floramerica Group (Floramerica), Flores la Frangancia (Frangancia), and Grupo Sagaro (Sagaro).

On October 3-11, 1994, Grupo Benilda (Benilda), Grupo Tropicales (Tropicales), Grupo Prisma (Prisma), Grupo Bojaca (Bojaca), Intercontinental, Sabana, the Andes Group (Andes), Grupo Papagayo (Papagayo), Grupo Clavecol (Clavecol), Sagaro, Agorosas, Flores Mocari S.A. (Mocari), and Rosex submitted preverification corrections to their respective responses.

Department of Commerce personnel conducted sales and cost verifications of the respondents' data in Miami from October 9, 1994, through November 3, 1994.

On October 7, 1994, the petitioner submitted comments regarding the verification of the respondents' sales responses.

In October 1994, Rosex and Andes submitted corrections identified at the beginning of verification.

On November 7, 1994, the Caicedo Group (Caicedo), submitted certifications from the Government of Colombia that four members of its group did not export during the POI.

On November 10, 1994, Arnold and Porter, counsel for Asocolflores a growers organization that represents 14 of the 16 individual respondents, met with Assistant Secretary for Import Administration Susan G. Esserman regarding a suspension agreement. (See memorandum to file, November 11, 1994).

On November 14, 1994, Beall's Roses, Inc., an American importer, entered an appearance as an interested party in this investigation.

On November 18, 1994, Asocolflores submitted four reports, the Botero Report, the Tayama Report, the Lewis & Sykes Report, and the Hortimarc Report addressing to the issue of whether or not third country prices should be used in calculating foreign market value (FMV).

The Department's sales and cost verification reports for Sabana, Sagaro, Rosex, Floramerica, Mocari, Prisma, Frangancia, and Tropicales were issued from November 16 to 29, 1994.

On November 28, 1994, the petitioner supplied the Department with comments concerning the four third country pricing reports supplied by the respondents on November 18, 1994.

In November and December 1994, Rosex, Benilda, Floramerica, Intercontinental, Prisma, Bojaca, Sagaro, Tropicales, and Frangancia submitted revised sales listings and computer tapes.

In September 1994, both the petitioner and the respondents requested a public hearing. Case and rebuttal briefs were received from the petitioner and the respondents on December 2, 6, and 12, 1994. On December 13, 1994, we held a public hearing.
